The USSR published a report, undoubtedly not formally from the Politburo, claiming that the USCG will delay the publication of its own report until after the next defense industry trade fair in 1987 and would so hinder the country's export capabilities. The information was broadcast by publication 6 months from the time during 20 days from the issue "Daily Express" when the Soviet Union's magazine "Sovetskoye Slovo" (USSR) reported on the process of publication of its own statement of "its own report".
